

Nourish Botanica Spring 2023 GA Tech Student Intern

Hi! We are Nourish Botanica, a Black woman owned, Atlanta based greenhouse eatery and plant & flower shop. Our for-profit eatery and greenhouse will set the stage for programming that amplifies Black voices, highlights Atlanta's food justice organizers and farm communities, and supports the good work of like-minded organizations and leaders. Our mission is to create a gathering space for our community to assemble grassroots efforts that ignite profound societal changes while enjoying delicious, wholesome foods and beverages, plants, flowers, and healing conversations.

Nourish Botanica is committed to excellence through *diversity and building authentic and lasting solidarity among the BIPOC community, in order to undo anti-Blackness, Native invisibility, dismantle white supremacy, and advance racial justice. Fostering a caring and inclusive work culture is one of our top priorities. We welcome all folks from the BIPOC community. Emphasis is placed on candidates in South Atlanta, 30315 district with proactive experience grounded in food justice, agri/horticulture, and art.

*All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without bias to race, ethnicity, educational background, age, religion, sexual orientation, or gender. We warmly welcome neurodivergent folks, gender-fluid folks, and disabled folks. Your beautiful uniqueness is welcome here.

Our team and community are wholeheartedly committed to social activism, amplifying Black voices, joy, and abolitionism. Come see what we're up to at www.nourishbotanica.cafe/nourish-botanica-values and on Instagram @nourishinblack.
