Meredith Rentz
CEO and President, MedShare

The Board of Trustees appointed Meridith Rentz CEO and President effective September 1, 2011.

Meridith comes to MedShare from her role as Chief Operating Officer for Points of Light Institute, a national nonprofit with a mission to inspire, equip and mobilize people to take action that changes the world.

Previously, Meridith served as Chief Administrative Officer for Emory Internal Medicine and worked in Deloitte Consulting’s Healthcare Strategy and Operations practice, assisting clients in the United States, New Zealand and Portugal. Prior to consulting, she worked with the South Carolina Department of Health & Environmental Control in the area of tuberculosis control and also owned a small business that provided computer consulting to rural medical providers.

Meridith currently serves as Chair for the board of Atlanta-based Quality Care for Children and is a 2010 graduate of Leadership Atlanta. Meridith is an alum of both the Rollins School of Public Health and the Goizueta Business School at Emory University where she received her MPH and MBA degrees as a Woodruff Fellow. She received her BA in Economics from the University of North Carolina as a Morehead Scholar.

Media Sponsors: