D. Grants and Contracts

Awarded a competitive research grant (Faculty Development Award) from The University of Rhode Island for the academic year 1999. The grant was used to gather data for: Unit IPOs: The Who, When and Why of Warrant Amendment and Unit IPOs: What the Warrant Characteristics Reveal about The Issuing Firm

E. Other Scholarly and Creative Accomplishments

"Wall Street Journal Finance Educators' Review" Fall 1999 to Summer 2007

Co-authored with Beverly Marshall and Pete DaDalt

Every week, we provided summaries of three Wall Street Journal articles to the Wall Street Journal Educational Services Division. Along with the article summaries, we provided the topic of finance to which the article relates as well as several discussion questions that can be used by finance professors in the classroom. Every week, The Wall Street Journal then distributed our summaries and questions to finance faculty so that professors could utilize this material in the classroom.
