

AJAY K. KOHLI
GEORGIA INSTITUTE OF TECHNOLOGY

December 2017

Ajay K. Kohli is the Gary T. and Elizabeth R. Jones Chair, and Professor of Marketing at the Scheller College of Business, Georgia Institute of Technology.

Professor Kohli is a former Editor-in-Chief of the Journal of Marketing, the premier broad-based academic journal in Marketing. The Journal's two-year impact factor increased from 3.6 to 5.5 over the course of his tenure (2008-2011).

He currently is Associate Editor, Journal of Marketing Research, Senior Editor, International Journal of Research in Marketing, and Editorial Review Board member, Journal of Marketing. He serves on the Senior Advisory Board of the Journal of Sales and Sales Management, and on the Advisory Board of the Academy of Marketing Science Review.

Dr. Kohli's research focuses on a variety of topics including market orientation, customer solutions, market signaling, sales management, B2B marketing and brand management.

He is among the 100 most cited authors in the fields of Business and Economics combined in a decade, and two of his articles are among the 10 most cited Journal of Marketing articles in a quarter century. He is represented in ISI HighlyCited.com, an ISI web site that lists the top 0.5% cited authors during two decades in a number of social and natural sciences combined.

Dr. Kohli received the 2017 AMA/McGraw-Hill/Irwin award, widely considered to be the highest career award in Marketing. He received the Paul D. Converse award (termed "Marketing Hall of Fame" by Fortune) in 2016 for his work on market orientation. He has received two honorary doctorates—one from the University of St. Gallen, Switzerland and one from Corvinus University of Budapest—and is scheduled to receive a third from BI Norwegian Business School in 2018. He is a recipient of IIM Calcutta's Distinguished Alumnus Award 2017. He is an AMA Fellow, EMAC Fellow, and ISBM Fellow. He is a recipient of the Mahajan award for career contributions to marketing strategy, and one of three 25-year Consortium Fellow Excellence award recipients for his year.

His has received several "best paper" awards: He is the first (and as of date only) two-time recipient of the Sheth Foundation / Journal of Marketing award for an article's long-term impact on the field of marketing. He received the Alpha Kappa Psi award (now called MSI/Paul Root award) for his article in the Journal of Marketing, and the Sheth award for his article in the Journal of the Academy of Marketing Science. He received the annual AMA SERVSIG award for the best services article. In addition, one of his articles was a finalist for the Harold H. Maynard award (now called Hunt/Maynard award) for its contribution to marketing theory and thought.

He has previously taught at Emory University, Harvard Business School and The University of Texas at Austin. He has also taught at the BI Norwegian Business School, HSN, Norway, University of Muenster, Germany, Singapore Management University, SDA Bocconi, Italy, and WHU, Germany. He has led numerous executive education seminars in the U.S., Europe, Asia, and Latin America. He has taught at the undergraduate, MBA, EMBA, and Ph.D. levels, and has been recognized several times for teaching excellence, including with the College-wide Jack G. Taylor Teaching Excellence Award at UT-Austin.

Professor Kohli served as the founding Associate Dean and Director of the doctoral program in Business at Emory University. In this capacity, he was responsible for launching the doctoral program, recruiting students, developing operating processes, and ongoing administration.

Dr. Kohli has served on the Reappointment, Promotion and Tenure Committee (as chair and as a member), on the Dean Search Committee, and on the Doctoral Committee at the Scheller College of Business at Georgia Tech. He has served as the Area Coordinator at the Goizueta School of Business at Emory University. In addition, he has served on several committees at Emory University, including the Doctoral Studies Committee, MBA Program Committee, and the Research Committee.

Dr. Kohli worked in industry for six years in sales & distribution management, and in marketing strategy consulting. His last business employer was Monitor Company where he served as Group Leader. He has also consulted with several companies including 3M, Accenture, Andersen, Coca-Cola, Dow Chemical, Eastman Kodak, The Forum Corporation, Halliburton, IBM, Shell, Texas Instruments, and the World Bank.
